

AAWC FOOD 2014

(Day 1) Registration Table: chocolates

(Day 2) Lunch: sandwiches, salads, fruit, cookies and water

(Day 3) Breakfast: muffins, fruit, juice

Registration – we bought 7 large bags of Hershey chocolates but only used 5. We purchased them at Prize Mart on Fleming and Hennessey in Wan Chai. They cost 46.00 HK each. Total - 322.00 HK for 7bags

Lunch – we preordered sandwiches and salads from Ebenezer's (phone #3622-3622) on Lockhart in Wan Chai. We talked to Ebenezer's catering in January and set up the catering date of March 14 and a preliminary order of 60 chicken Kebobs, 60 falafel kebobs, 30 chicken salads, 30 Greek salads. We also ordered 18 trays of 12 cookies.

After the conference registration closed, I got the final numbers for food ordered and called Ebenezer's with the changes. We ordered 19 Greek salads, 58 chicken salads, 38 falafel kebobs and 85 chicken kebobs totaling 200 items. Ebenezer's does not deliver before 11:00 am but they got it to us by 11:15 for the 11:30 serving time. It was a bit tight but worked out okay. They wanted a credit card number with the final order but were happy to be paid in cash at the delivery.

*note: We had 4 salads and 5 sandwiches left over. All the cookies were eaten and they would have liked more. We ran out of dressing for the salads. They supplied forks for the salads so there were not enough forks. They did supply enough plates and I had extra napkins there.

Price break down: Chicken salad – 48.00 HK; Chicken kebobs – 60.00 HK; Falafel kebobs – 58.00 HK
Greek salad – 35.00 HK; Cookies (per 12 or one tray) – 60.00 HK Total – 12,080.00 HK

We bought fruit in the Wan Chai market the day before the lunch. We bought 100 apples and 100 bananas. We used ALL this fruit for the lunch. Total - 400.00 HK.

We purchased 200 bottles of water and 30 smaller bottles for the presenters. We ordered it from Welcome in Wan Chai and they delivered it 2 days before the conference. They were very late bringing it to the church. Someone has to be at the church to receive the delivery. (See juice entry for price.)

Breakfast – we ordered the juice boxes with the water from Welcome. We bought 207 juices. *We used only 130. Total – 1,336.50 HK

The muffins were homemade by Tammy Ness. She made 230. * We used only 150. She made 4 kinds of large muffins; poppy seed, chocolate, pumpkin cream cheese, and blueberry. She made them several days ahead and we froze them. They were a great success. Total – 1741.21 HK (about 8.00 HK each)

We also purchased another 100 bananas and 100 apples for breakfast but we had about 50 of them left over. Total – 400.00 HK

We supplied the napkins for the breakfast and used about 50. (No charge donated to Filipino Branch)

The food committee also set up 20 tables (they needed washing down) 8 chairs each in the 1st floor cultural hall. It was very tight and crowded. It might be helpful to spread out into the overflow or upstairs. Maybe serve from the overflow and sit in the cultural hall. Breakfast was served out of the overflow and the first floor cultural hall. It moved very quickly. There seemed to be less attendance at breakfast.

The food committee for AAWC 2014 was Marilee Page, Brynn Steimle, Marj Sanders and Tammy Ness.
